

Arizona Opry

If you are in Gold Canyon Arizona anytime from November through May and you like live entertaining that includes country music and comedy you will want to check out the Barleen's Arizona Opry.

2010-2011 will be the group's 24rd year performing at their facility on the Old West Highway in Apache Junction Arizona. They perform several different shows throughout the entire season so you can go several times and catch a different show if you love this sort of entertainment.

Group rates are available and it's a fun place to take a group! For information call 480-982-7991 or visit the website for the Arizona Opry.
