

El Mirador

El Mirador is a 60 acre custom home gated community of fully improved 1/2 acre to 2.5 acre hillside view home sites overlooking the Superstition Mountains and the Superstition Mountain Golf and Country Club in Gold Canyon, Arizona. The community is on the East side of Silly Mountain and currently still under development (spring 2009) in Gold Canyon, Arizona.

Located east on Highway 60, north on Superstition Mountain Drive, and turning left before Superstition Mountain Golf and Country Club – then winding into the El Mirador community. Easy to reach, the community is located only about 45 minutes east of the Phoenix SkyHarbor airport.

Currently there are residential lots for sale where custom homes can be built. There are also some spec homes, as well as resells that have been custom built.
